

NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

EDUCATION SERVICES NEWSLETTER

SPECIAL EDITION SUMMER 2009

We couldn't let summer end without sharing with you some of Northern and Eastern Nevada Commencement Ceremonies' highlights:

The tassel's worth the hassle!
~Author Unknown

LCC Instructor Cheryl Cosenza delivers keynote address to graduates.

WNC Director Diane Hillard and Deans John Kinkella and Carol Lange congratulate NNCC college graduates.

Ferd Mariani, Director Carson Adult Education welcomes guests and congratulates graduates during NSP, NNCC and WSCC ceremonies.

Humboldt County GED/Adult Diploma Graduation Ceremony Dale Rutherford, CCST HCC received certificates on behalf of the inmates.

NSP Lead Teacher Bruce Barnes offers graduates words of encouragement.

When you feel discouraged or simply lazy, as is bound to happen sometimes, remember the millions of people in the world who have not had your privilege.

Remember the poor and obscure lives of those countless millions who suffer from every sort of deprivation and frequently find themselves the unwilling victim of wars, and a variety of cruelties, perpetuated by man on man. Is it not significant that the first bid for self realization, among the poor and downtrodden, is to assert their right to education? -

Jehan Al Sadat (Arabic: (تاداسل) ناهي ج), also spelled Jihan; birth name Jehan Safwat Raouf (Arabic: (فؤور توفص) ناهي ج) (born August 29, 1933) is the widow of Anwar Sadat and as such was first lady of Egypt from 1970 until Sadat's assassination in 1981.

"TURNING OF THE TASSELS"
Nevada State Prison
Class of 2009

And.....

We are not done yet: One more graduation ceremony awaits, Florence McClure Correctional Center. Due to construction projects ceremony was postponed until December 2009.

